

ILLEGAL SIGNS

In the Right-Of-Way

To Residents in Unincorporated Miami-dade County

The Code of Miami-Dade County prohibits any person to erect any sign within the limits of any County maintained right-of-way. (Sec. 2-103.15 of the Miami-Dade County Code.) The right-of-way includes, but is not limited to, all roadsides, sidewalks, utility poles, and highway median strips. In other words, all roads and the land immediately next to them are considered rights-of-way unless they are in privately-owned developments where the land is not dedicated to Miami-Dade County. Any person who places a sign in the right-of-way shall be subject to an immediate fine up to five hundred dollars ($500.00) per sign.

(Chapter 33 of the Miami-Dade County Code regulates signs on private property)
